Mr. Cole Saunders of the Mohawk Ranch Company, who has been laid up with a sprained ankle at the San Xavier hotel in this city left for his ranch in the Mohawk Valley Saturday night.

From a reliable source it is learned that the contract will be awarded to-day by the Florence Canal Company for the completion of their canal to a point three miles south of Casa Grande.

Those who are to take part in the ger man Thursday night, May 9th, '89, will be furnished with a card naming their partner, on their arrival at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Smith.

The whereabouts of Tucson must be mystery to some people. This morning the "Official Bulletin" published at Mil-waukee, Wisconsin, asking for an ex-change was received. It was addressed to "Crrizen, Tucson, Alaska." Some friendly hand had, however, made the necessory correction and it came through in just 26 days.

Mr. John Behan, Supt. of the Territorial prison, is ill in Los Angeles. A short time ago a party by name of Connor died in Yuma and being virtually without relatives, willed to Mr. Behan his property, valued at $50,000. In days gone by Connor had been in hard and his friend Behan, with character istic generosity, gave him a new start in life, and when Connor died he did not forget his benefactor.

The Grand Army of the Republic in this city have issued invitations to all organized societies to join them in the coming memorial holiday exercises on the 30th instant. These exercises will be elaborate and imposing. The hat will probably be passed around in a few days to help Negley Post defray the ex-penses incident thereto. The cause is a worthy one.

Hon. John Wasson, ex-surveyor gen-eral of Arizona, but for the past year a resident of Chico, California, is in the city and is being warmly greeted by his friends of whom no man has more. He is enjoying fair health as is also Mrs. Wasson. He speaks hopefully of the outlook for California and expresses himself as well pleased at finding so good indications of prosperity in Arizona.

LAW OF EXECUTION.

Repealing Chapter 1, Title 26, of the Revised Statutes of the Territory of Arizona, Approved March 1st, 1887.

Entitled "executions" and substituting this act to take the place of same. Be it enacted by the Legislative Assem bly of the Territory of Arizona:

Section 1. A party jn whose favor a adgment is given may at any time within five years after entry thereof have a writ of execution issued for its enforce-

SEC. 2. The writ of execution must issued in the name of the territory of Arizona subscribed by the clerk and sealed with the seal of the court and be directed to the sheriff of the county where it is to be served and must refer intelligibly to the judgment stating date of entry, name of court and county where the judgment is filed, and if it be for money, the amount thereof, cost, interest and amount actually due thereon. and must require the officer serving the same substantially as follows:

1sr. If it be against the property of the judgment debtor, it must require the officer to satisfy the judgment with interest out of the personal property of such debtor and if sufficient personal property cannot be found then out of his real property, or if the judgment be a lien upon real property then out of the real property belonging to him on the day when the judgment became a lien or at any time thereafter, or if the execution be issued to a county other than the one in which the judgment was revered on the day when the abstract of the judgment was filed in the office of the recorder of such county.

2ND. If it be against real or persons property in the hands of the personal representative heirs, devisees, legatees, nants or trustees, it must require the officer to satisfy the judgment out of such property.

3ap. If it be for the delivery of the possession of real or personal property it must require the officer to detiver the value of the property for which judg-ment was rendered to be specified therein if a delivery thereof cannot be had, and if sufficient personal property can-not be found then out of the real property as provided for in the first subdi-vision of this section.

SEC. 3. The execution may be made returnable at any time not less than ten nor more than ninety days after its receipt by the sheriff or other officer, to whom directed by the clerk of the court issuing it. When the execution is re turned the clerk must note on the judgment book the amount made by the officer and to whom paid, and attach the execution to the judgment roll. If any real estate be levied on, the clerk shall note the fact on the judgment book with a description of such real estate as shown by the return.

SEC. 4. When the judgment requires the performance of any other act than above designated, a certified copy of the judgment shall be served upon the party against whom the same was rendered or upon the person or officer required there by or by law to obey the same and obe nce thereto may be enforced by the ourt as in other cases of contempt. SEC. 5. The judgment may be eners of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Catarrh in the Head beavy headache, obstruction of the massi passages, discharges failing from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak and watery; there is ringing in the cars, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scals from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a "nasal twang"; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh, "Cold in the Head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache.

Sold by druggists everywhere; 30 cents.

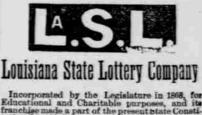

"Untold Agony from Catarrh," "Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as inourable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards-sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent." "Constantly Hawking and Spitting,"
Thomas J. Rushing, Esq., 202 Pine Street,
St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostris. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was acvised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Zemedy, and I am now a well man. I believe t to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."
